

Uttara Devi Resource Centre for Gender & Development

M S Swaminathan Research Foundation

cordially invites you to a

Public Lecture

on

“Indian Women - a disappearing breed ?”

by

Ms. C.P. Sujaya I.A.S (Retd)

Chair: Ms. Sheela Rani Chunkath I.A.S

Secretary, Health and Family Welfare, Govt of Tamil Nadu

on Friday September 9th 2005 at 3.15 p.m.

Venue

M S Swaminathan Research Foundation

III Cross St, Taramani Institutional Area,

Chennai - 600 113

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Programme

Invocation : Who is the cause? – a video spot

Welcome Address : Dr.M.Velayutham
Executive Director, MSSRF

Lecture : Ms.C.P. Sujaya I.A.S (Retd)
A distinguished administrator, women's studies scholar and activist who has been deeply engaged with women's issues and women's development for all of her working life, and is continuing to make a major contribution to women's development in various capacities. She is currently Visiting Fellow in Gender and Development at MSSRF.

Concluding Remarks : Ms. Sheela Rani Chunkath I.A.S
Secretary, Health and Family Welfare,
Govt. of Tamil Nadu

Vote of Thanks : Ms. Mina Swaminathan
Honorary Director,
UDRC, MSSRF