

Date:08/06/2011 URL:

<http://www.thehindu.com/2011/06/08/stories/2011060862080800.htm>

Back

Tamil Nadu

MSSRF to offer suggestions on small business on phone

Special Correspondent

PUDUKOTTAI: The M. S. Swaminathan Research Foundation will conduct a meeting to provide suggestion to the people on small scale industries through telephone at the Centre for Entrepreneurship Development in the town on June 8.

Experts and entrepreneurs will clear the doubts of the people in this programme. Those who would like to seek clarifications and suggestions about small industries should register their doubts by contacting the phone number 93800 01217 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The experts will call them back after 2 p.m. and will provide them suggestions and solutions.

A.Sathishkumar, Chief Manager, State Bank of India, S. Prithiviraj, Director, Entrepreneurs Promotion Centre, S. Krishnasamy, training officer, Gandhi Gram University Trust, are among the experts who provide expert opinion to the callers. The people interested starting new industrial ventures and those already running small industries etc could take advantage of the programme and get their doubts cleared, R. Rajkumar, coordinator of the M. S. Swaminathan Research Foundation said in a release here on Tuesday.

© Copyright 2000 - 2009 The Hindu

